EVENING BULLETIN

3:30 O'CLOCK Right here lies the opportunity for a summer outing EDITION

If the Saturday Evening Post or the Youth's Companion were to offer as one of their premiums a trip to the largest active volcano in the world for 25 subscriptions, new or old, it would be the greatest metropolitan offer ever made.
THIS IS BUT ONE OF THE BULLETIN'S OFFERS IN ITS VACATION TRIP PLAN.

TWO JUDGE APPROPRIATION PASSED HOUSE THOUSANDS OF LIGHTS FOR FLEET

NEW JUDGE FOR HAWAII

To Mott-Smith, Honolulu.
"Additional district judge passed House."
"KUHO."
The above is a cablegram received by Acting Governor Mott-Smith last evening, giving the welcome news that another Federal judge would be appointed here. Although the bill has not been before the Senate, it is understood that the matter has been recommended favorably, and will undoubtedly go through. Representative Alexander of New York is the man who is given credit for introducing the bill into the House.
Speculation here, of course, is rife as to who will get the plum. It is known that Judge Robinson had an interview with Governor Frear shortly before he left, and it is also pretty well known that the talk had considerable to do with the additional United States District Judgeship. Judge Robinson has a splendid record behind him and

TWO KAMAAINAS DIE IN BREMEN

Death Of Capt. Wolters And Pfluger Almost Simultaneous

News of the death of two well known Kamaainas was received this morning by Hackfeld & Co. They were J. W. Pfluger and Captain Wolters, both of whom were connected with Hackfeld & Co. in days gone by. Both died at Bremen, Germany, their deaths being almost simultaneous. Captain Wolters dying May 24 and Pfluger May 25.
J. W. Pfluger was a brother of J. C. Pfluger, who was a silent partner of the late H. Hackfeld, who founded the firm of Hackfeld & Co. He came here when quite a young man, and remained in the islands for many years, being in the employ of the firm. He was at one time the Russian vice-consul for Hawaii, and made an important business voyage to Siberia. Pfluger left the islands in about 1887 and went to

SHARPENING AXE FOR CAMPBELL

"If Campbell will not appoint James Keola, as Maui's assessor, to succeed W. T. Robinson, who resigned recently, his appointment will not be confirmed by the Senate." The above remarks were made by one who is in a position to know what is being done.
A letter has been prepared and is being sent on to the other island members of the Senate asking them to oppose the confirmation of Campbell's appointment, when the Senate meets. Keola has been and is the senior deputy assessor of Maui. It is therefore nothing but fair that Keola should be given the preference. It was generally reported on Maui that Judge McKay, of Walluku, may be given the assessorship of Maui, he being, in the opinion of Treasurer Campbell, the most competent man to hold the position. The Hawaiians are speculating on this proposition and the Hawaiian political situation.

Ask For Verdict Over Jury

A new phase of the famous Bierce-Hutchins case came up this morning when a motion was filed by the defendants to have judgment decided in their favor notwithstanding the verdict of the jury the other day, when the case was decided against them. A number of reasons are given for the request.
In the first place it is claimed that there is no cause of action. In the second place, no valid claim has been presented by the plaintiff. It is also alleged that no consideration was given to the bond, and it was therefore void. The defendants also claim that contract of sureties for re-delivery of the bond was altered, changed,

Hawaii Still Leads

Manager C. B. Wells of the Walluku plantation returned on the Manchuria with his wife and daughter from a tour of the Orient.
In all his movements Mr. Wells of course had his main lines of travel centered on sections that would give him an idea of what other people are doing in the sugar industry.
One of the principal points of interest was Java. "The sugar makers of Java don't frighten me," said Mr. Wells this morning. "They are running things on the old plan and they are far and away behind the sugar growers of Hawaii. They have plenty of labor, to be sure, but it seemed to me they had too much of it. They refuse to use labor saving machinery, and consequently do not turn out the results."
"The Philippines struck me as a great country if given proper legislation and the right kind of care from the Federal Government. There is a future for that place. I had intended to travel to the islands where sugar cane is grown. In fact, Governor Smith said he would put one of the coast steamers at my disposal, but about the time for us to start, something broke and as the sailing was delayed several days, I could not make the trip."
"Manila is a busy place. It looks to me like a pretty good place for a young man to grow up with the country. But the islands need free trade with the mainland to make them prosperous."

"I haven't any money left. I paid it all to the custom house here for what few trinkets I brought back with me. We had a splendid time and I am going back to the plantation in a day or two. Incidentally I am getting rid of a cold or the whooping cough or something like it, that I captured in Japan. No, they didn't charge me duty on that. Come to think of it, I wonder why whooping cough should be on the free list. It is the only thing I brought that I would like to have the custom house confiscate."

COAST YACHTSMEN NOW ENTHUSIASTIC

That the Coast yachtsmen have now warmed up to the Trans-Pacific Race for keeps can be considered certain, judging from the contents of the files of Los Angeles papers which arrived in the Maru yesterday. Lloyd Childs, the representative at Los Angeles of the Hawaii Promotion Committee, has been doing some fine work in the way of working up interest in the matter after it had practically been considered dead, and his efforts have evidently been crowned with success. The Los Angeles papers devote a very large amount of space to the matter. The Examiner, May 8, contains a detailed account of a meeting of the yachtsmen, at

COLONEL SPAULDING HAS BEEN LOCATED

Castle & Cooke this morning notified Acting Governor Mott Smith that they had, by request, located Col. Spaulding, though they did not state where he was.
Mott-Smith therefore sent the following cable to Governor Frear:

"Spaulding located. No answer. Communicate with Rithet for particulars. Advise me."

From the text of this, it is supposed that the Kapa land exchange will be settled soon. Spaulding will probably be heard from in a short time, and a definite answer to the Government's proposal given.

BEETS QUOTED AT FUTURE ADVANCE

Alexander & Baldwin have received the following cablegram, dated today, from their New York correspondents: There was a sale of 95 test today that does not affect the basis for Hawaiian sugar at 4.27c. Cubans for delivery at New York by steamer, June shipment. Federal Sugar Refining Co., was the buyer. Beets 11s. 3/4d. firm. Three months hence quoted at an advance of 1/4d.

Senator W. J. Coelha is in town for a short rest after his strenuous season of labor in assisting the harvest of sugar at Walluku plantation.
Mr. Coelha, in speaking of Senator Hewitt's comment on the status of the Republican party, said, "That may be the condition on Hawaii but it is not the state of affairs on Maui. The party is in good shape on Maui, because we are always at work, always on watch, and striving to strengthen the party with the people."
"From what I can make out down here and from what I hear of Hawaii, I should say it was about time for some of these Republicans to get a move on and do some work. The Democrats are hard at work. There's no doubt of it."
